WHAT WOULD YOU TAKE WITH YOU IN 2012?

FOUNDATION FOR OUR FUTURE

A series of catastrophes will devastate our planet in 2012. What would you pick to survive and continue to inspire future generations?

In the coming weeks, the entire global community will be asked to nominate and vote for the works of Film, Art, Literature and Music that should be preserved.

literature

An author's art comes not from their ability to show you their world, but to empower the reader to see it for themselves. Which works of literature will carry the written word from this time to the next?

Arguably the most important artistic medium of the 20th century, film has told stories in a way no other medium could. Which stories must the world see again after 2012?

art

Whether reflecting the world as it is or the world as we wish it to be, artists have explored a myriad of mediums to convey their point of view. Which pieces of art should serve as the lampposts to light our way to future discoveries?
